

Apprentice Hairdresser

We are looking for a motivated apprentice looking to kick-start their career in hairdressing to join our team. As an apprentice at Aidan Patric Hairdressing, you will receive constant support from our talented staff team to develop your skills in every aspect of the business, alongside working towards your Level 2 Diploma for Hair Professionals.

OVERVIEW

You are employed in a full-time position within the salon which provides you with an excellent opportunity to start work as an apprentice hairdresser and to earn as you learn. You will work a maximum of 40 hours each week. A typical working week will be five days including one day over the weekend. Your main focus in the salon is to work with hairdressers to provide high quality service and support for clients visiting the salon.

During your employment, you will also be working and studying towards a Level 2 Hair Diploma for Hair Professionals (some other equivalent courses may also be appropriate – please contact the salon to discuss whether your course is suitable). Off-the Job training will be a minimum of 20% of the time you spend at work.

DUTIES

Your main salon duties will include:

- Acting as an ambassador of the salon at all times
- Maintaining a suitably fashionable personal image
- Being available for work during all scheduled hours
- Helping to prepare the salon to receive clients
- Smiling and always appearing happy at work
- Welcoming clients and visitors to the salon
- Being helpful and respectful to clients and colleagues
- Undertaking all reasonable tasks allocated to you
- Helping to provide refreshments to clients and visitors
- Gowning up and preparing clients prior to treatment
- Shampooing and applying conditioner treatments
- Blow drying hair under supervision when requested
- Preparing equipment and materials for hairdressers use
- Re-filling stocks of frequently used materials
- Helping to maintain a safe working environment
- Tidying up and maintaining the image of the salon
- Fully endorsing the products and services of the salon
- Participating in periodic work performance reviews
- Assisting in the general security of the salon

Your main training duties will include:

- Attending all scheduled training sessions
- Following instructions and learning each new subject
- Providing suitable training models when requested
- Completing all project work and tests set by trainers
- Keeping safe all records of assessment
- Participating in periodic formal training reviews
- Sharing your progress with your employer and salon colleagues
- Attending special salon, and other, events as requested

MANAGEMENT AND SUPERVISION

You will have a supervisor/mentor within your salon and a dedicated apprentice coordinator during your apprenticeship training. Health and safety training will be provided in house.

YOUR BEHAVIOUR

Ideally you will have had a Saturday job in a salon or undertaken work experience so you will have a basic understanding of how a hairdressing salon operates. You will be outgoing and have a ready smile and show interest in talking and listening to people of all ages and backgrounds. You will also be self-motivated and keen to learn new skills and ideas. You will be interested in fashion and have a positive attitude and contribute to the salon environment. You also will be punctual, show good attention to detail and you will be consistent in following procedures and instructions.

PROGRESSION

Further opportunities will be offered which will include additional training. The company has every intention to invest in your future in order for you to become a valuable long-term member of the team.
